

School Day Memories

*As We Reach Out Our Hands
The Diploma We Grasp,
While We Think Of The Memories
Of The Years In The Past.
Tears Fill Our Eyes
Because It Is All Gone,
We're Starting A New Life,
We Have To Move On.
We Hope Friends Will Keep In Touch
As The Years Pass Us By.
Although It Hurts Inside
We'll Try Not To Cry.
We Think Of Kindergarten
And Our First Day,
Now We've Reached The End
We Are Going Away.
How Do You Say Good-Bye,
To Friends Who Mean So Much?
Will There Be Time
To Sincerely Keep In Touch?
You'll Always Have The Memories
Of Our School Years From Day One
Don't Think Of School As Ending
Think A New Life Has Begun . . .*

Nehemiah Haire doesn't have to be on the steps to look down on people. "What's up with that Neah?" Nagendra, keep your eyes open while you walk! Chris Longo stops dead in her tracks for this action photo. Hey guys-don't look so happy to be here! Good Going Marc! Isn't this a scarey thought- George Marsh-the teacher!!

Kathy Thuman thinks "not while I'm eating!" Geno Leshnak says "Be cool, drink milk! L.C. from Borden does!" Joey DeSalvo and Tim Morris - What are you up to now? Jim Watt is trying to impersonate someone who studies! Jack Savage thinks-Wow, she's heavier than she looks! Just kidding Shari. "The Gang".

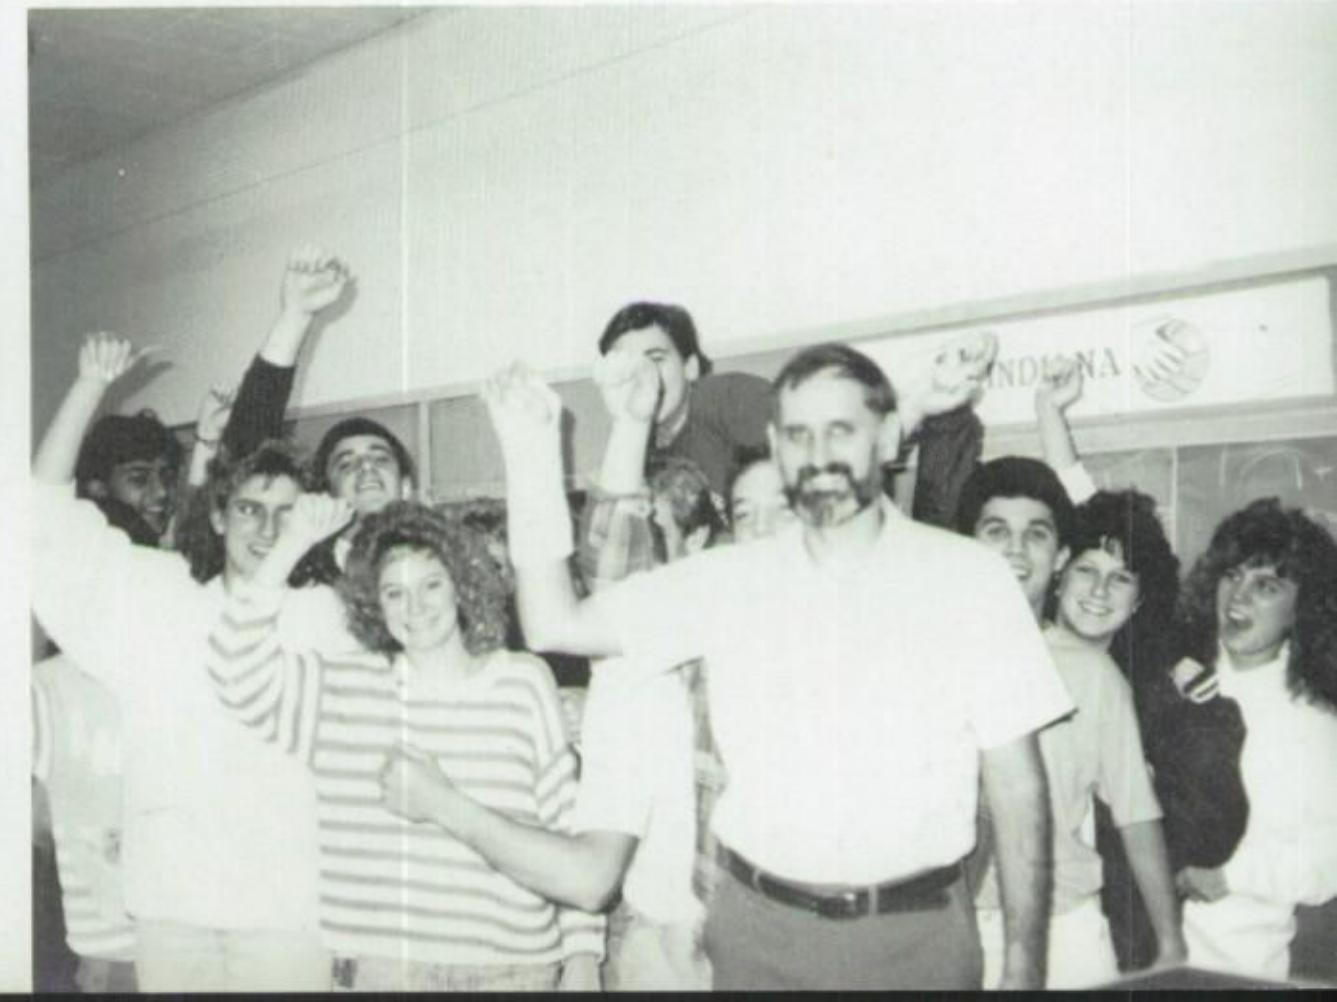

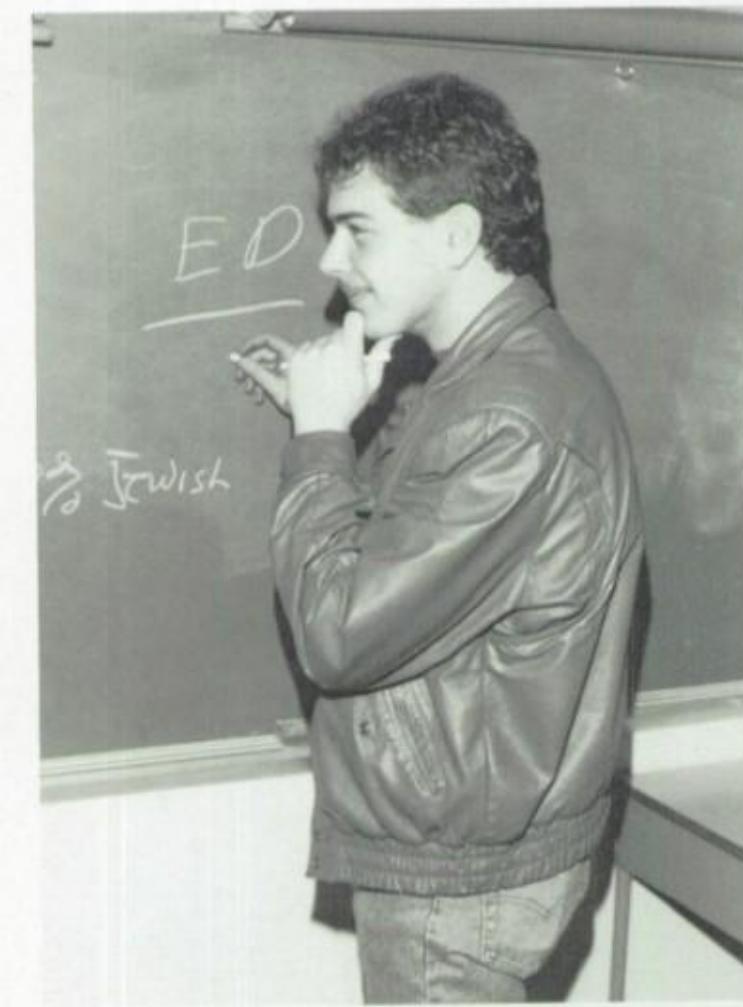

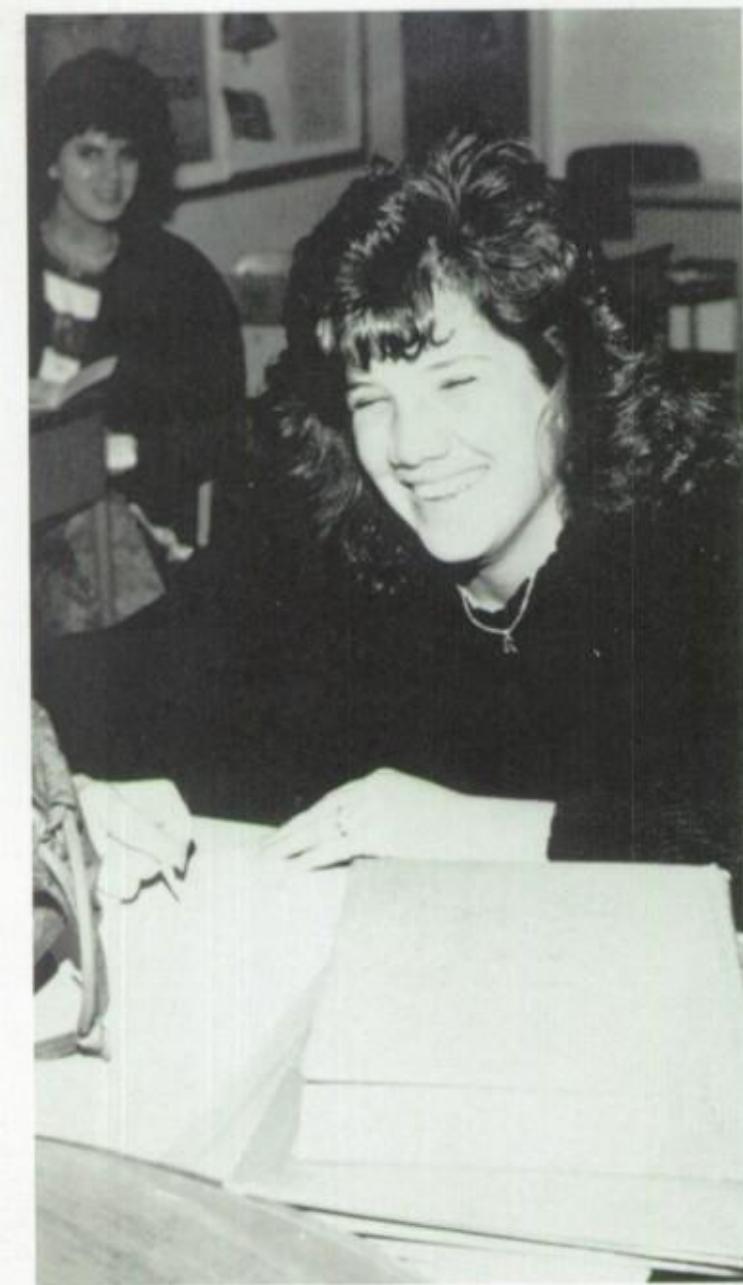

Joelynn LaFaro basks in the summer sun! Carmen, how is that art drawing coming along? Terry Price is the man of the 1980's, showing what a wood cutter is really made of!! Jason, the yearbook staff is warning you not to jump, Mr. Prince might not want to save you!! Chuckie proves to be a most dignified man in glasses!

Seniors Of Nineteen Eighty-Eight

Eric Seifert in action! Michele Mallen and Cammie Sperling, we almost didn't recognize you in those disguises! Michele we know Debbie's in costume, but are you? Terri Hodge is thinking—Kelly, don't talk with your mouth full!!! Ahh- How cute! Come on you guys, smile! Jim Watt, we have yet to see you with your mouth closed! Dia El-Khouri trying to look innocent—we know you did it! Susan Fox showing off her pearly whites. Sharon finally found a way to keep Brian's mouth shut.

Karen Klodell, caught in the act of giggling.... again!

Michelle, Cammie, and Shari.... pals until the very end!

Tom Woolweaver works on his shop project. Sandra, Rose, and Michelle . . . forever the Three Musketeers!

Hey Floyd, don't you know your name yet? Mr. Shellenbarger and crew, raise your hands if you're sure!

Smiling Faces!

Heather Johnson gives a shy little smile for the camera!
Heather Mollic, whatever you do, just "don't drink the water."
Arnie Bauers checks out the Leopard's latest victory.
Valli, our salutatorian, is the real clown of the Senior class
Steve Willis and his Crayola harem-Dia, Shari, Lynne, and Michelle.
Sean brings out the smile in Ann Battaglia.
Goofing off with friends, now this is what they made school for!

Seniors . . . The True

Come on Tim, Steve's a "big boy" now- he can walk through the halls on his own!

Danielle proudly displays her favorite team, (whether or not her choice is right is a different story!).

Nehemiah and Eric pay real close attention to Ed as he demonstrates the "proper way" to sit in a skirt.

You guys, I told you once . . . snap that camera or die! The choice is yours.

Come on guys, I'm not done yet . . . . . don't get up . . . . . just a few more minutes-please?

Spirits Of L.H.S.!

Pete Christy gives a big simle during class . . . . What could he be up to now?

Come on Barb, now whether you like it or not, you have to come to class!

Sharon, Deva, and Suhad look harmless enough, but could they be another "Bermuda Triangle"?

Advanced Physics—You may see them now, but two weeks later half of them were gone!

Amy Edwards and Dave Gitson are definately keeping everyone in Liberty at order—especially Steve Willis.

Juniors On The Move!

Bill Esmail, resident strongman and scholar, gives us a flex while studying his history.

Michelle Ross and Kim McGinnis are really true sisters at heart, as we can see here before a pep rally.

Scott Bova gains the crowd's attention to prove once again that when Bova talks, people listen!

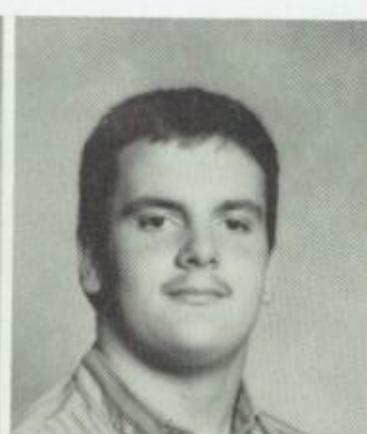

Here they are, Liberty's version of the Good, the Bad, and the Ugly!

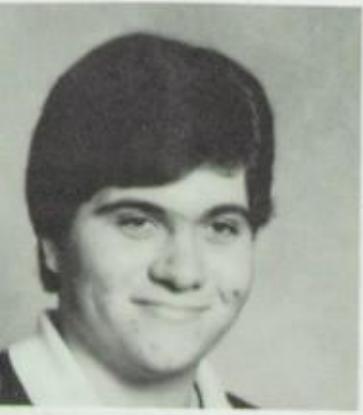

C. Wilson demonstrates his feelings toward the quality of education here at Liberty.

Harry, we never knew that the cross country team had its own waterboy!

New Generation

As the cheerleaders say, "We're the choice of a new generation . . . ." This years juniors will soon be seniors who must uphold the same attitude, school spirit, and discipline (WAIT . . . scratch discipline) that was held in 1988. Anyone who knows even one junior will have to admit that this class is "unique" in many ways.

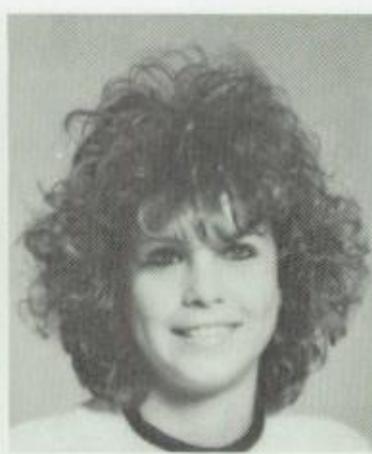

Grace, standing alone with her flag in hand, looks worried while wondering where the rest of the Flagline went.

Nick goes up for the basket and is all ready to score for his team . . . too bad the game hasn't started yet!!!

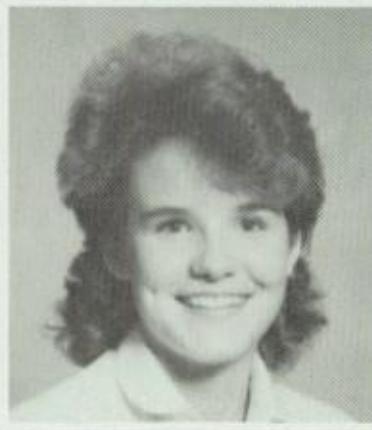

Tony, also known as "the Sleeping Beauty of L.H.S."; appears to be having pleasant dreams while showing what a student should really be doing during classes!

Now we know what is meant by "deceiving looks"!!

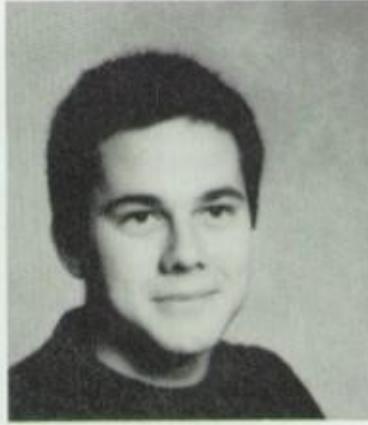

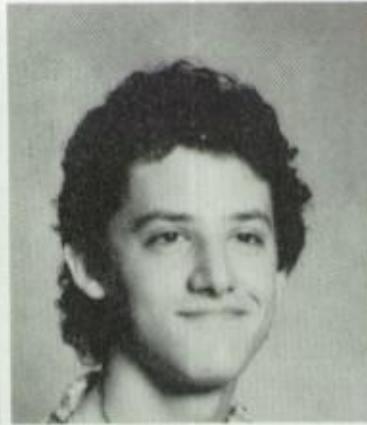

Chris and Frank, you know that the dance isn't until next week!!

I could have sworn I saw a freshman put a lunch in this locker!

Juniors Have Liberty Pride!

This year's Junior class has a tough act to follow. They, however, have proven themselves to be worthy recipients of the role as the future leaders of Liberty High School. This class of approximately 160 students is made of people with differentiated backgrounds who form Liberty High School's one hundredth graduating class. The Juniors are already in some leadership positions both academically and extracurricularly. Some of the present and future leaders of this class are the Student Council members. They include President Charlie Banks, Vice President Michelle Ross, Secretary Sidney Pazol, and Treasurer Krissy Rogers. The other members are Marney Matey, Josh Olin, Wendy Perko, Kristen Weller, and Josh Yellin. With their help, the junior class will start off on the right foot. They will also prove that they are ready for the job of being Seniors!!

Tonya Stokes you're not "smoking in the Boys room" are you?

An Indepth Chat With Barb Cole

Barb Cole, the only sophomore working on the yearbook staff has proved the long held theory that underclassmen are not allowed to work on the yearbook. But Barb has shown that some hope exists for freshmen and sophomores, and she has also shown that the old stereotype about them being dumb is not always true. She has entered the realm of the upperclassmen and has proven that a neophyte can survive among an old bunch of pros.

Eric Swanson is finally working hard on his project (after searching for his wood for three days in Mr. Latessa's class). You'd better make it awesome after all that trouble!

Cheryl, watch out for the fruit flies in that locker! Shall we call an exterminator? Wait a minute . . . is that really your locker, or are you stealing lunches again?

Hey Lori, looks like it's "just another manic Monday" (wish it was Sunday-oooh!)

Hurry up and take the . . . bleep . . . picture. I think I hear Miss Dithomas calling!!

Charlie you can run but you can't hide 'cause we're gonna get you with the Kodak Disc!

Tony are you keeping out of trouble, or are you up to another one of your tricks?

A Talk With T. El-Khouri

Q: Do you think school is any different this year than last year?

A: "Yes, this year is fun, but last year was more exciting."

Q: Who is your favorite teacher?

A: "Mr. Rupert."

Q: What is your favorite class?

A: "Lunch."

Q: What is your favorite school food?

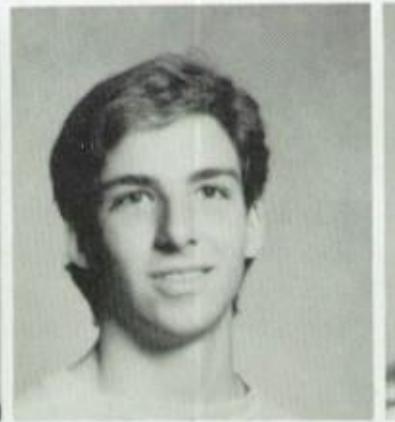

A: "Ho-Ho's and pizza."

Tony tells us that the most exciting moment this year was when the leopards won the football game. His most embarrassing moment was falling down the steps in front of three beautiful young ladies.

Tony also said that he'd like to see more support for the football team, more time between classes, and better cafeteria food in the years to come.

Freshman Find First Year Fun!

Sheila Woods has a special space on our page, since we ran out of room in the freshman lineup!

Fears Of The Underclassmen

The jump between junior high to high school is an exciting one for freshmen. New teachers are a constant challenge to our freshmen (although the freshmen can be equally as challenging to their poor teachers!). The halls which serve as nostalgic remembrances to our graduates appear maze-like and threatening to freshmen. Upperclassmen sometimes look upon the freshmen rather contemptuously but they themselves were just as awkward during their first year. Although frightened freshmen will find this year very exciting and it will always be something to remember.

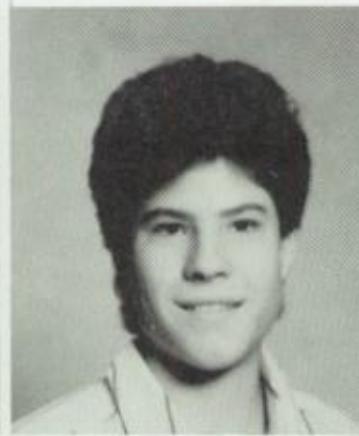

Here's Brady Rubin-typical freshman-trying to "kiss-up" to everything, including the walls!! But actually, it's just a side view of his barefooted push-ups!!

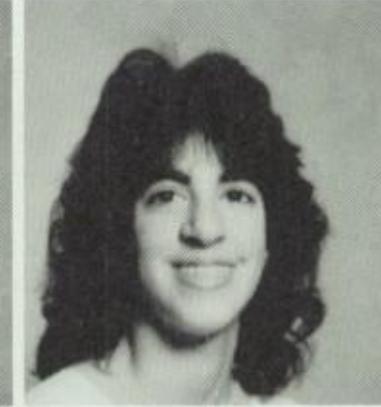

Frau is tired of pulling out her hair-so she picks on freshman Tim Schory's lovely locks.

Fifth period reading class is trying to impress Mrs. Hoover with their enthusiasm. But let's get real guys, Sports Illustrated isn't part of the curriculum.

Go Leopards - Number 1 In The State Of Ohio!

Robert Tamarkin, and Steven Rohan (2) Jack Savage, Geno Rice, Dennis Green, Nick Raich, and Tim Morris (3) Matt DeSalvo, Nehemiah Haire, Joe DeSalvo, Dixon Karmindra, Judd Rubin, and Rob Richardson, and Rob Richardson (5) Scott Bova (manager), Coach Patton, and Coach Birch

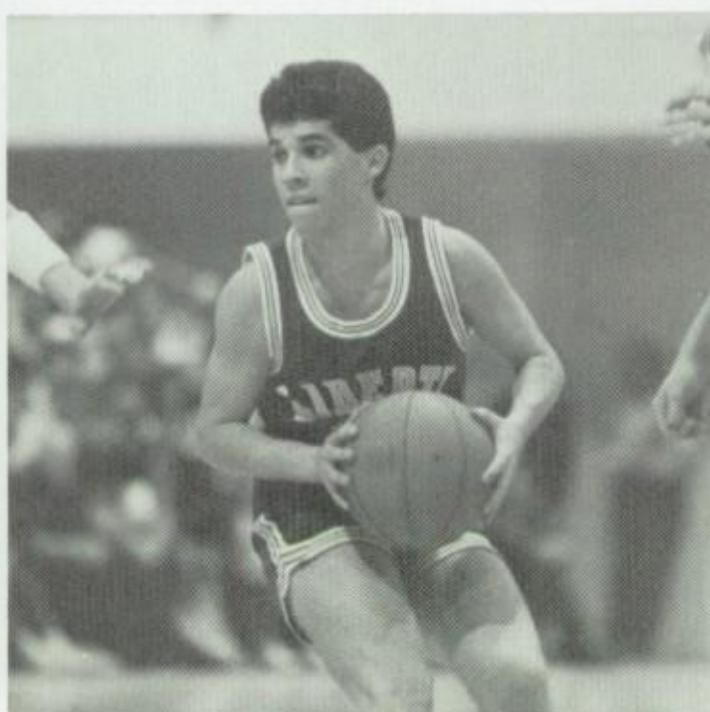

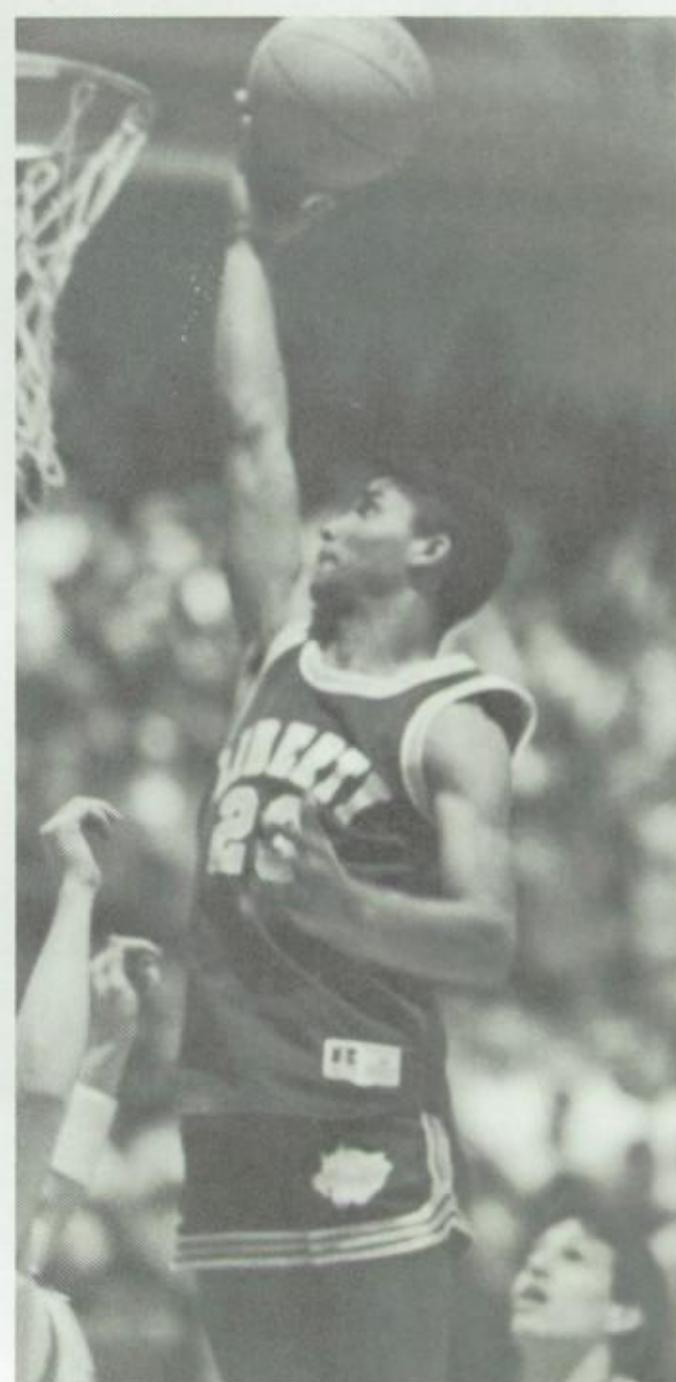

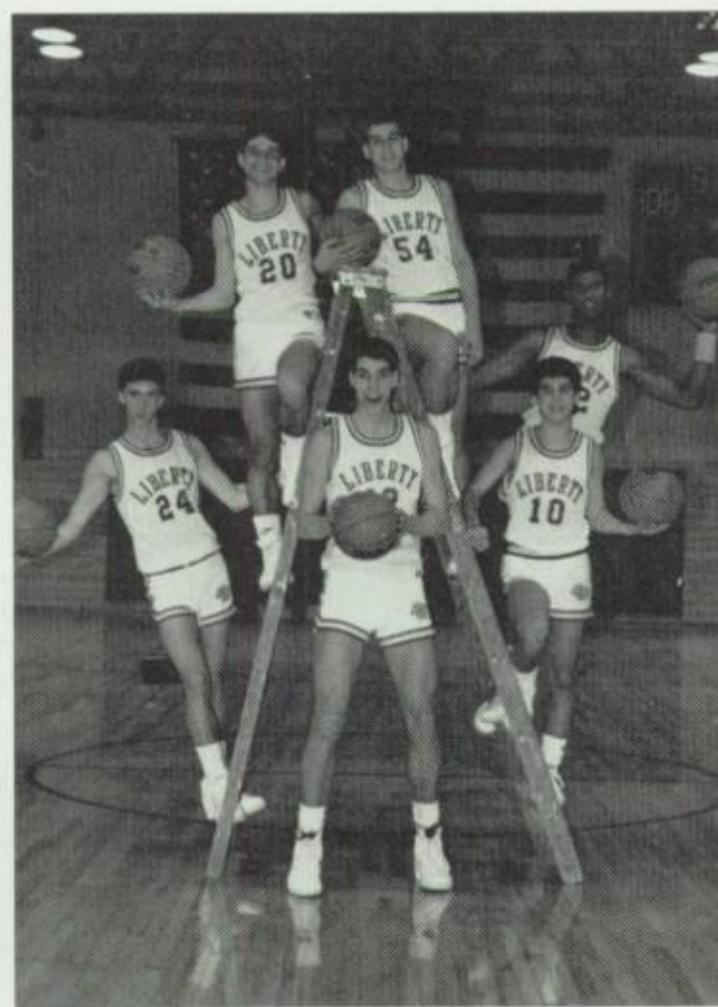

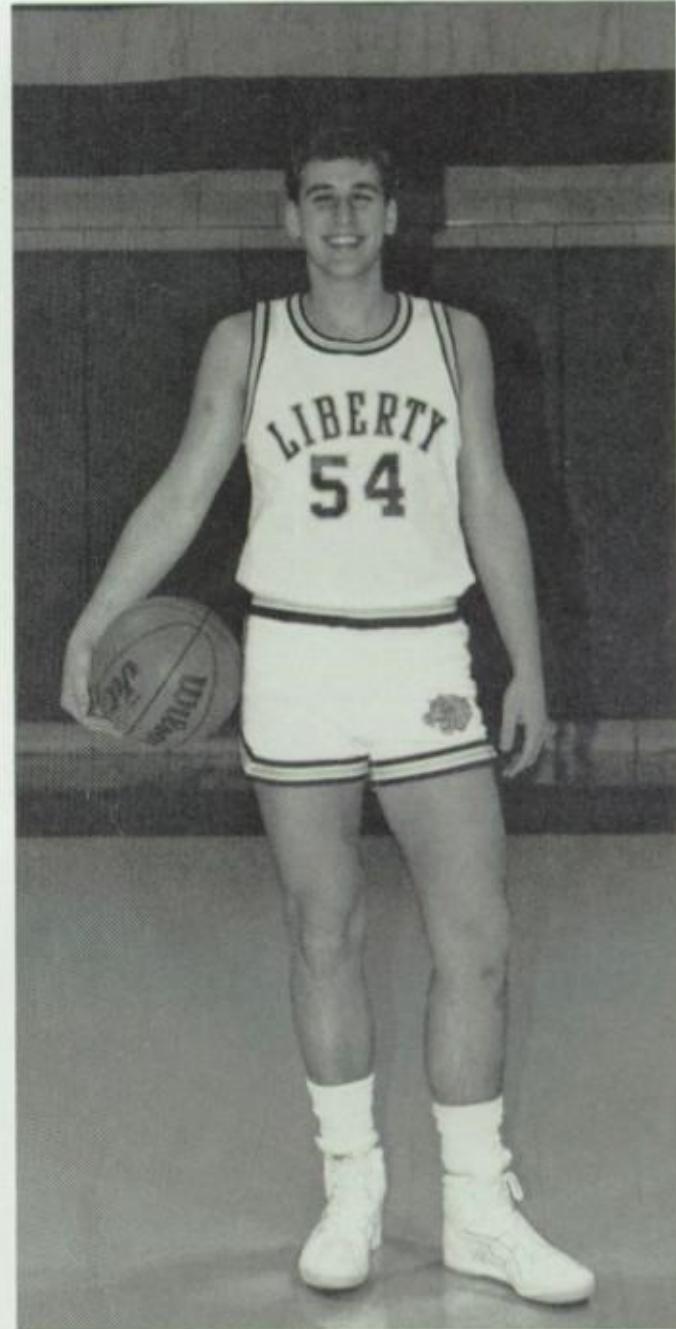

Our Liberty basketball team made us proud this year with an undefeated season, leaving us #1 in the State of Ohio in both the AP and UPI ratings. The team's six senior players did an outstanding job to rally the team from victory to victory. Senior Steve Rohan was named co-player of the year for Trumbull AA; all league, all Trumbull county, and all northeast Ohio 1st teams; and UPI placed him on the 3rd team, all State. Senior Joe DeSalvo was named to the 1st all league team, Northeast Ohio 2nd team, and also on AP's 3rd all State team. Nehemiah Haire also had an outstanding senior year, being named to the all league 1st team. Those receiving honorable mention in the Trumbull AA league were senior Robert Tamarkin and junior Judd Rubin. Seniors Jack Savage and Tim Morris also had an impressive season, helping to lead the leopards to victory. The rest of the team also did a great job. There's some upcoming talent that will undoubtedly lead through future seasons to victory. Juniors Matt DeSalvo and Judd Rubin played well this year and will do a great job next year. Sophomores Dixon Karmindra, Robbie Richardson, and Geno Rice saw their share of the action as well. And finally, make sure to keep an eye on freshman Dennis Green who has three more years ahead of him. Overall, the team has done an excellent job this year.

Liberty's Girls Basketball Team: 1987-88

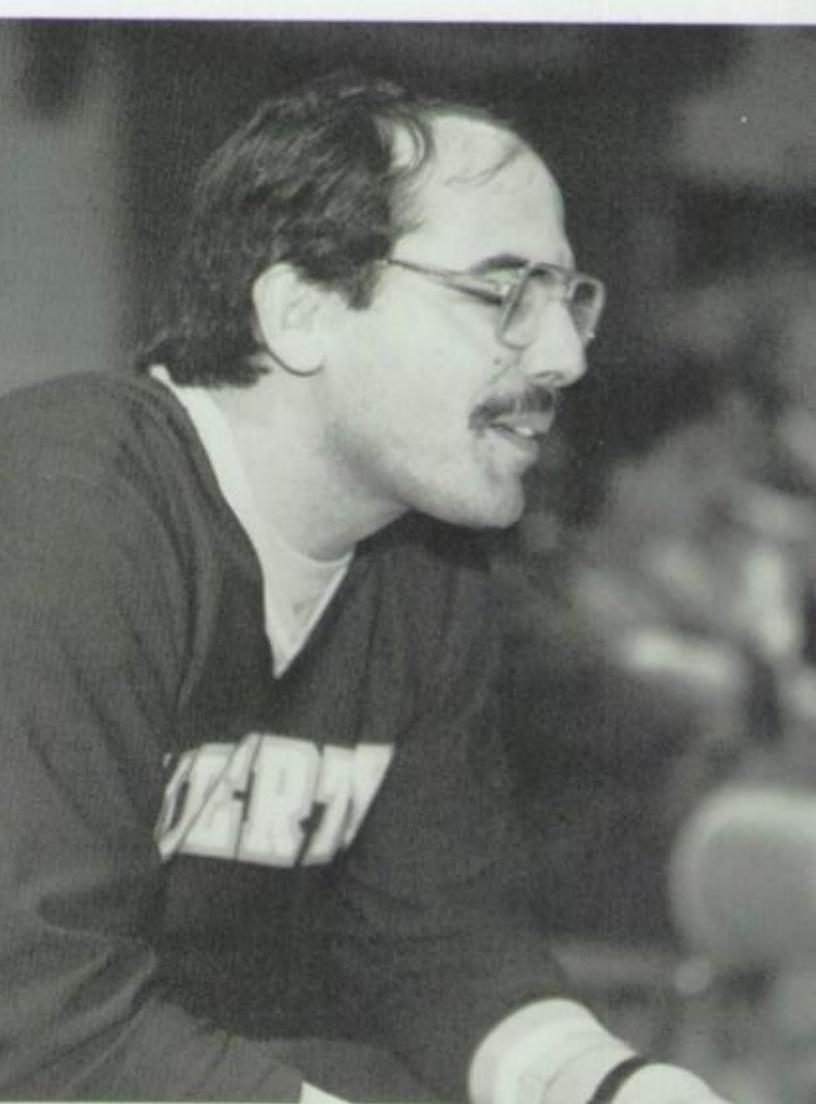

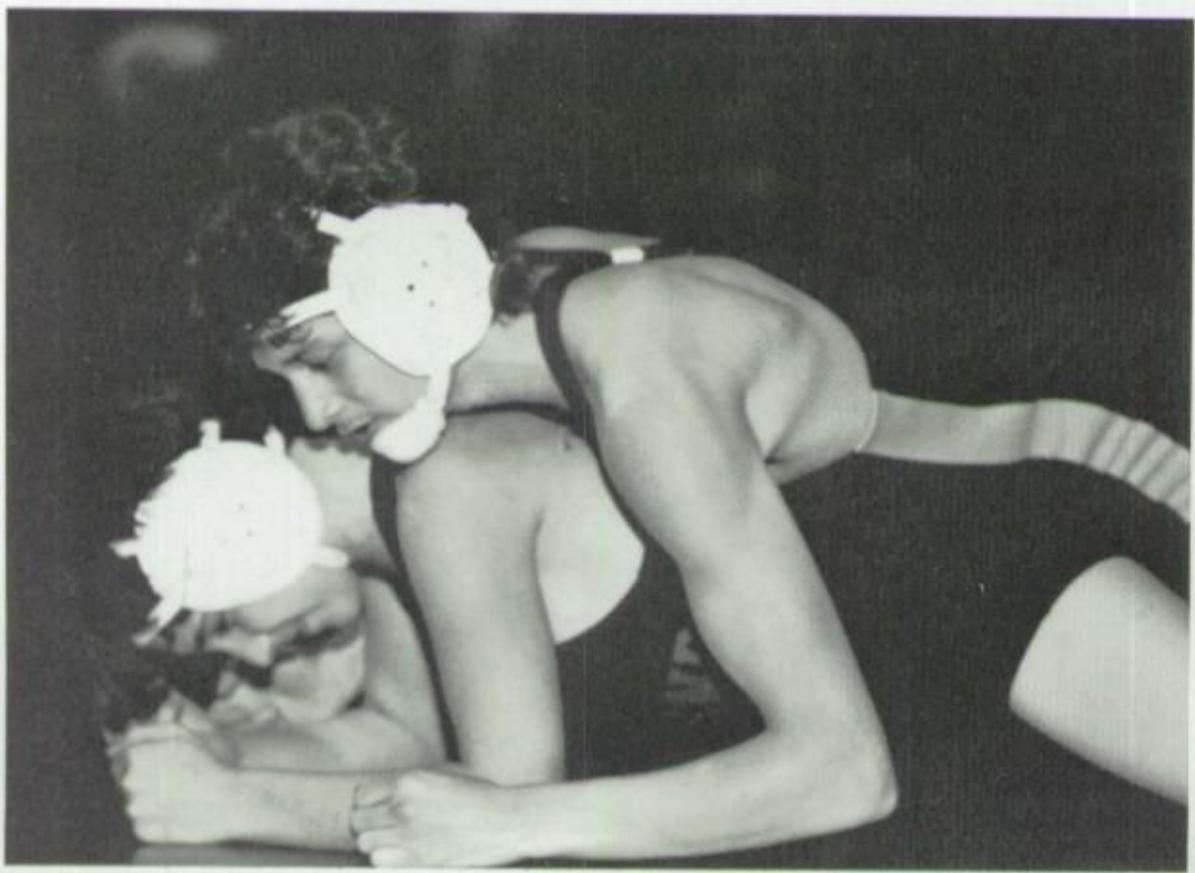

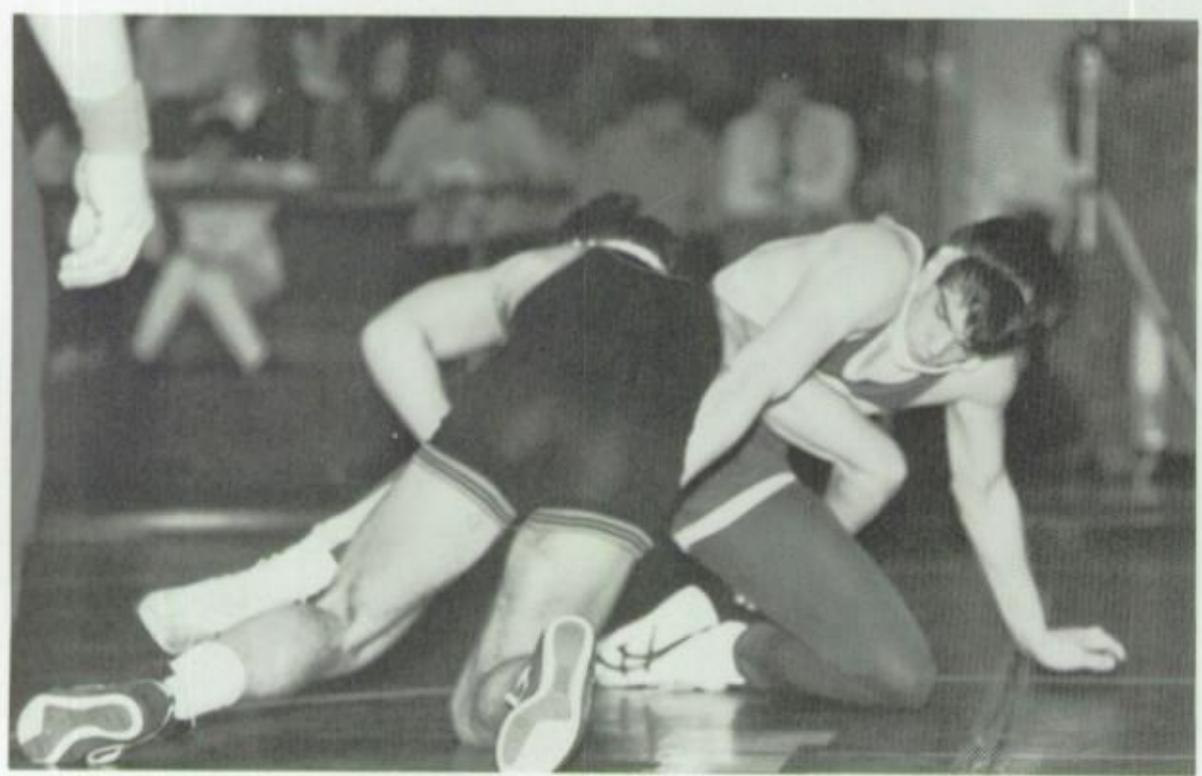

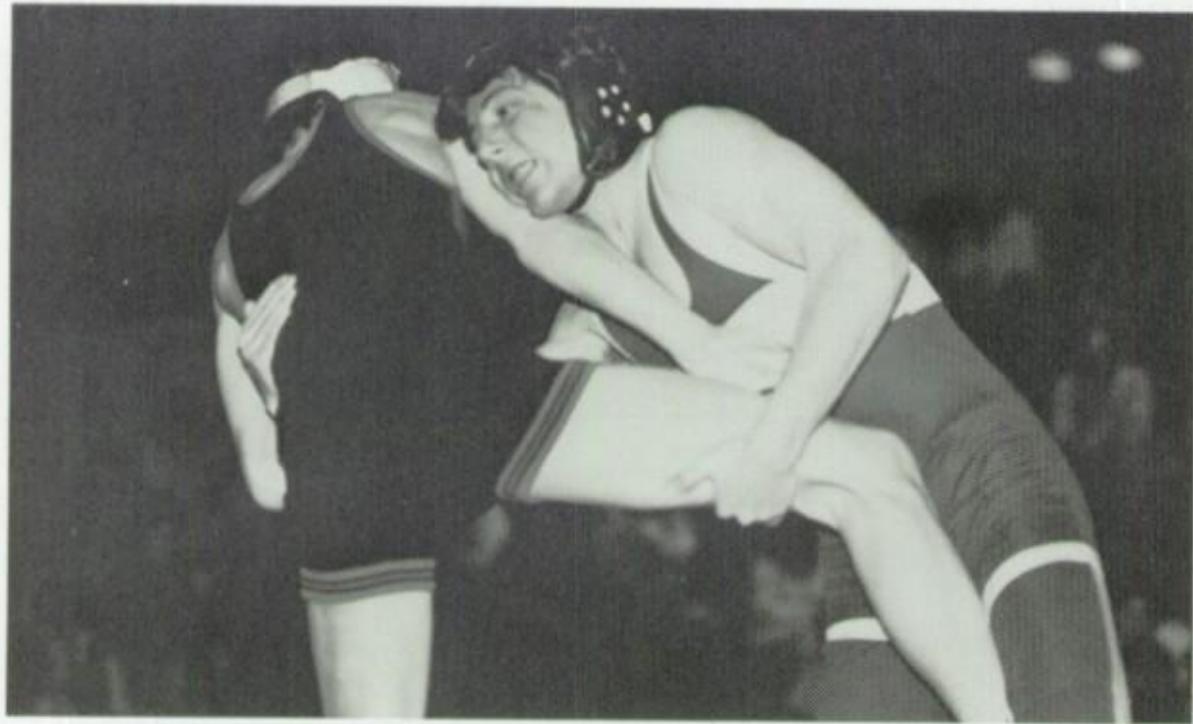

The Lady Leopards: Dia El-Khoury, Kathy Thuman, Kathy Knez, Stephanie Huffman, Lori Johnson, Ramona Waltz, Jennifer Jones, Janice Cosier, JV's Cindy Marsh, Janice Cosier, Kim Kopstoffer, Michele Depto, Jeniffer Wilson, Stephanie Huffman. Manager: Lattaya Blackman, Stats: T. Hewitt, M. Goldberg, M. Smith.

"Anytime that you go from a one win year to a 8-13 season that is an improvement. I believe that with greater participation by our girls we will see even more competitive teams throughout the Lady Leopard program. Our J.V.'s were very inexperienced in fundamentals this year, but showed steady improvement. Coach Jacobs and I feel confident in seeing continuous effort in obtaining a successful Lady Leopard Program at L.H.S." - Coach Harrison.

"All For Funries!"

Greg Kale picks up a leg and strives for a two point takedown. Mr. Lott who has been the wrestling coach for nineteen years is not only the team's coach but also their teacher. Scott Janoso reaches to hit a "switch." Senior Chuck Latronico under hooks for control against a "stand up." Sophomore Andy Tarentino is looking to hit a "half." Coach Hideg is suggesting to "move RIGHT NOW!"

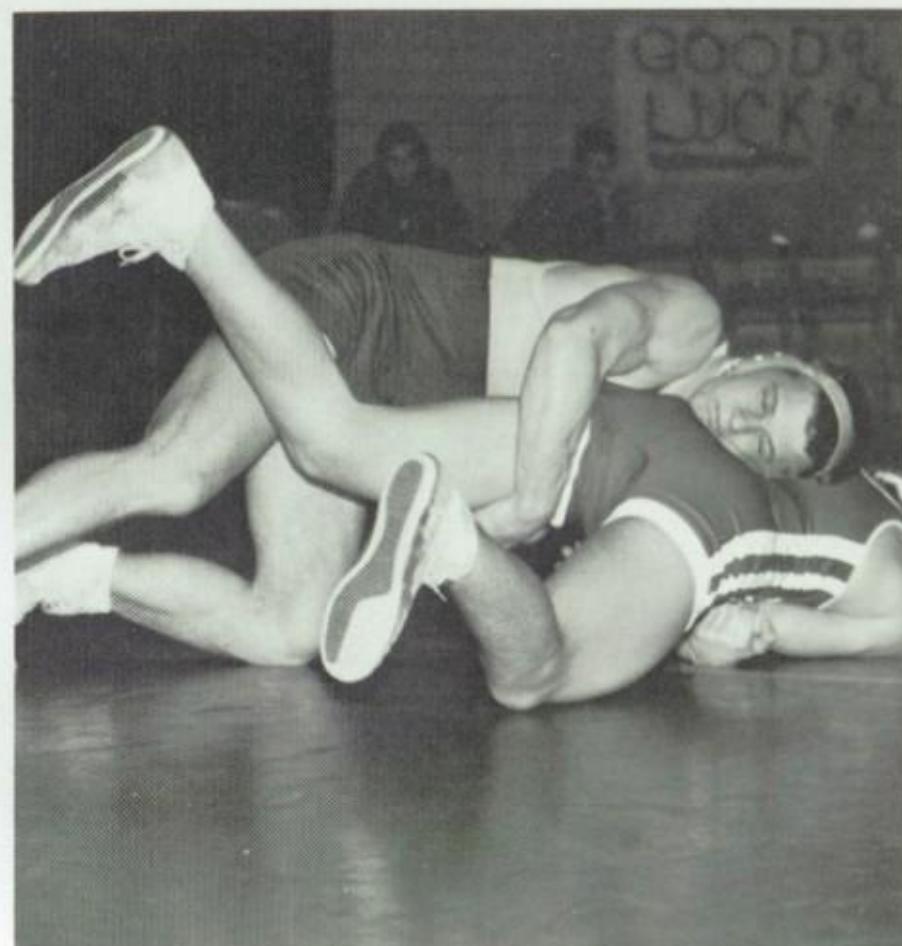

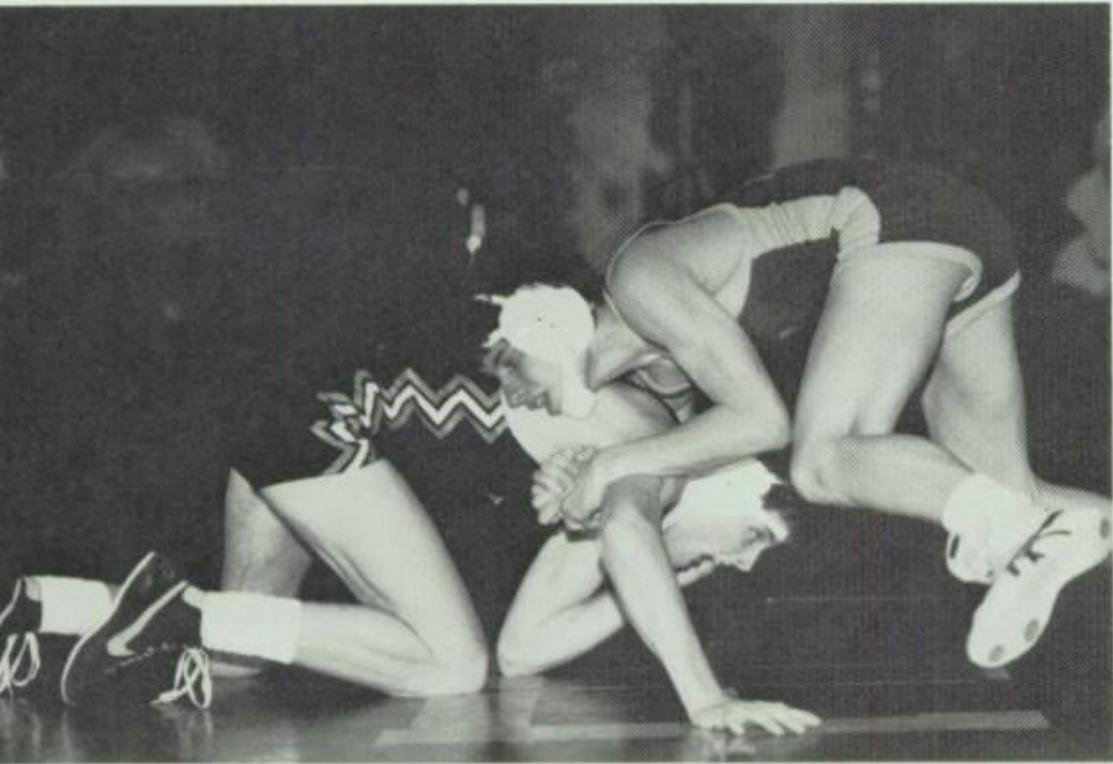

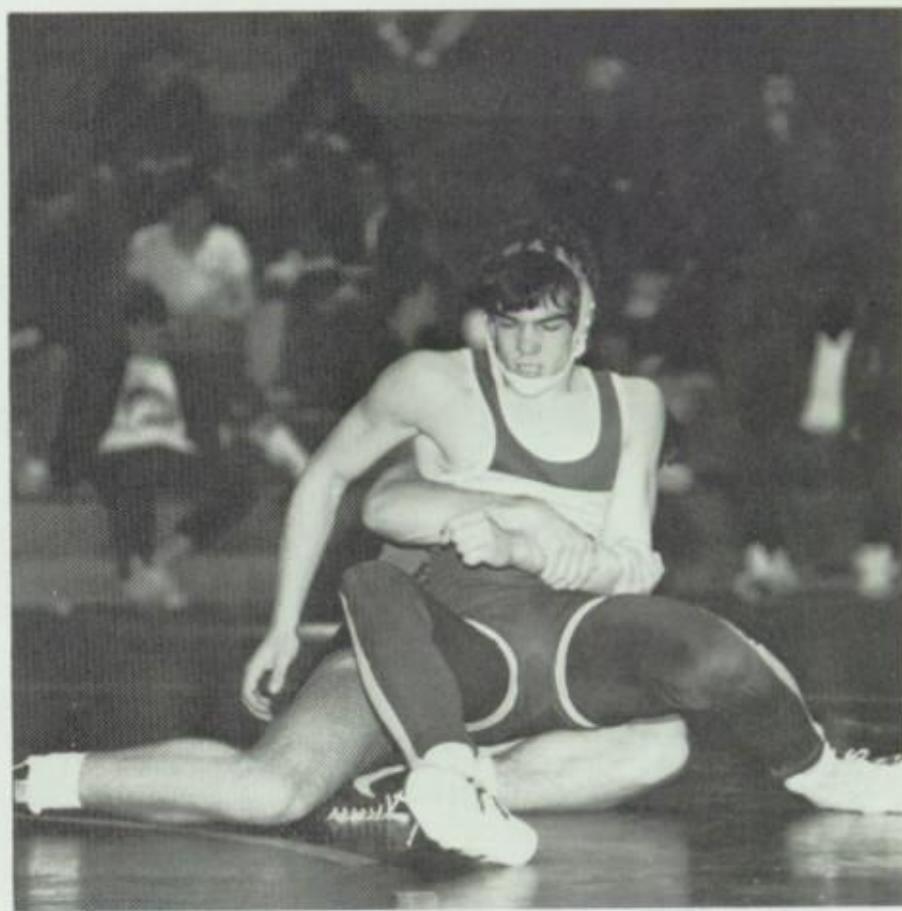

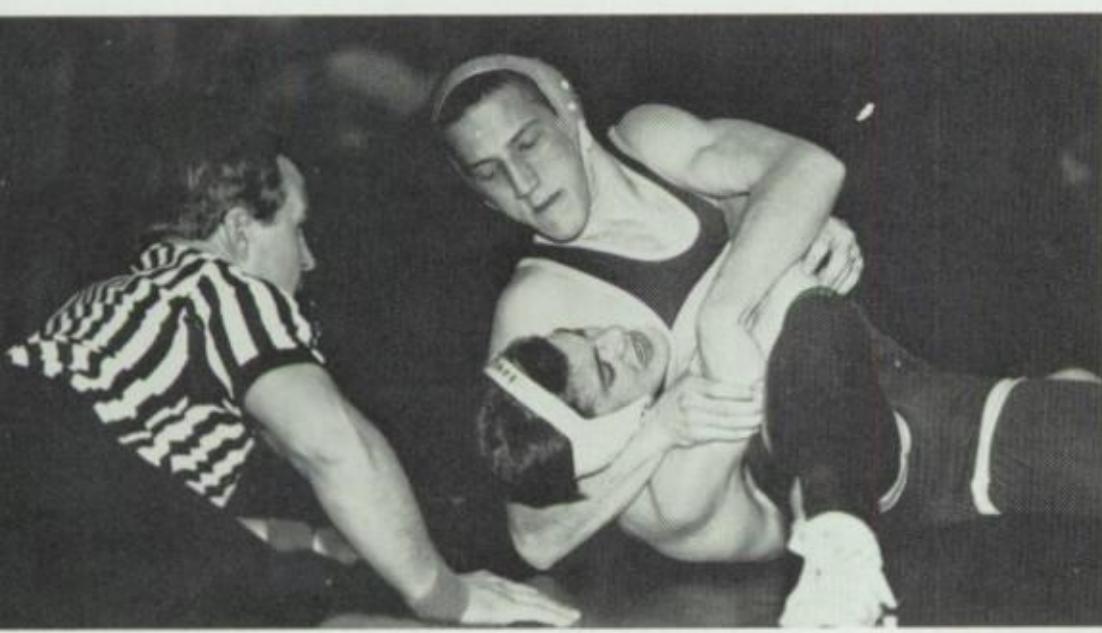

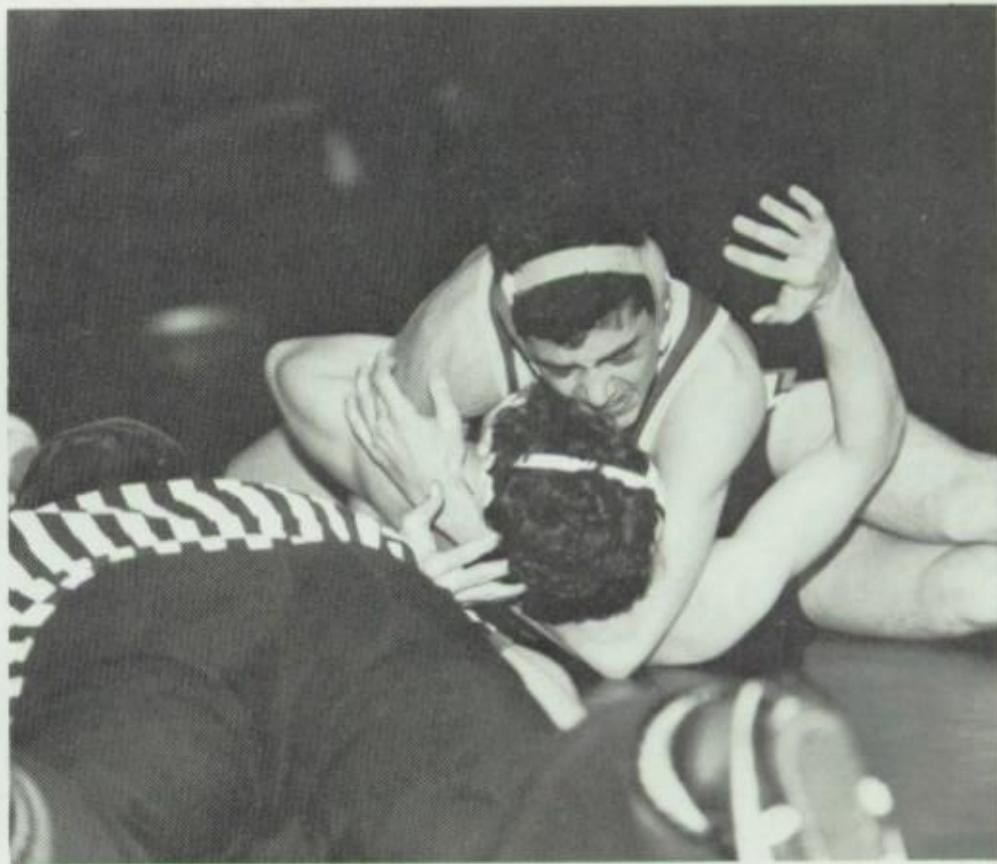

First Row: T. VanSuch, D. Cononico, G. Kale, B. Dragich, B. Beinecke, E. Adkins, B. Stambaugh, C. Burton, H. Hadi, A. Tarantino. Second Row: E. McConnell, C. Rafia, S. Graham, M. Orr, B. Skolnick, C. Liberty's Matment enjoyed a successful '87-'88 season. Among their accomplishments were a 9-9 team record, a varsity team tie for the E.O.W.L. championship, a J.V. E.O.W.L. championship and the distinction of being the only team to defeat the Hubbard Eagles. They placed third in the Howland invitational and second in the Jefferson invitational. Members of the team who succeeded to the sectional level were Tim VanSuch (112 lbs.) and Dan Cononico (125 lbs.). Tim VanSuch was also elected to the All County team. Liberty's All County second team representatives were Donnie Cononico (103 lbs.), Eddie Adkins (119 lbs.), Chuck Latronico (152 lbs.) and Danny Cononico (125 lbs.). All County honorable mention was awarded to sophomore Greg Kale. This season's captains were seniors Eddie Adkins, Dan Cononico, and Chuck Latronico, all of whom had a great year. Captains for next season will be Don Cononico, Tim VanSuch, and Chris Creed. The Liberty wrestlers are coached by Mr. Don Lott. This year Mr. Lott was recognized for his successful coaching in his 19 years at L.H.S.

Kasra Rafia is about to show his opponent our ceiling. Another pin for our Leopards is imminent. Geoff Kale is attempting to set up a takedown! Brian Bartlett is in the process of "picking fingers" to gain hand control and complete an escape attempt. Dan Cononico is riding his opponent and is trying to control his hips.

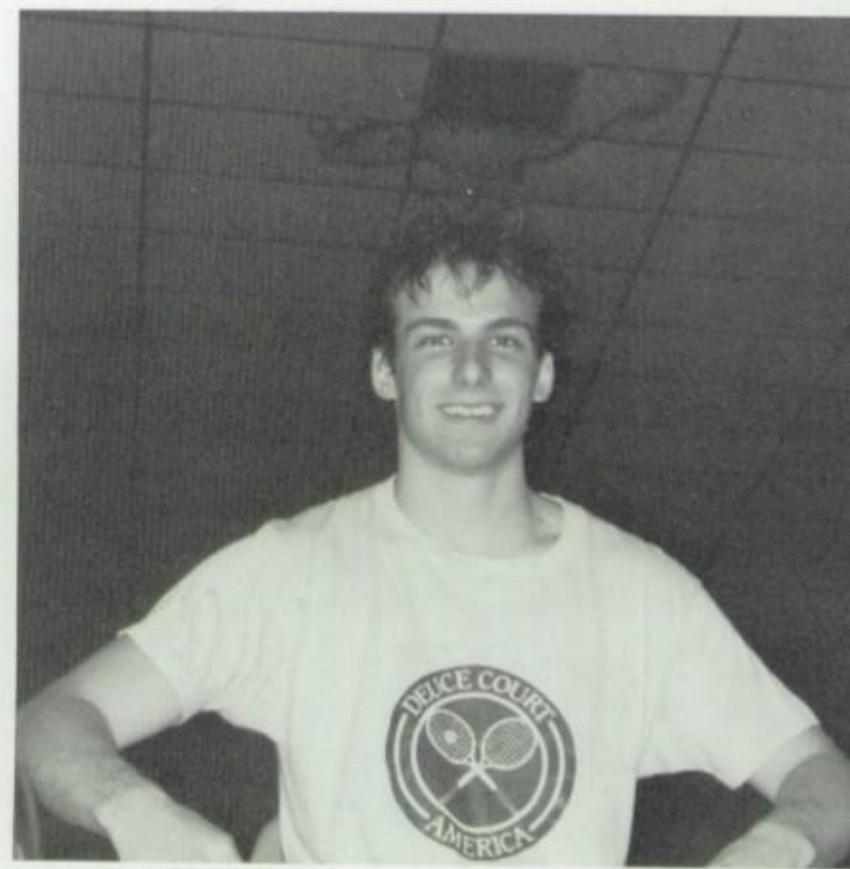

Chuck has trapped his opponent's leg and is driving for a takedown. Geoff Kale has a Guillotine and is about to earn some valuable back points. Danny Cononico is trying to trap an arm and hit a throw. Shawn Graham is trying to avoid a chancery. Kale is attempting to block his opponent's double leg takedown. Mr. Lott is enjoying the match because he believes it's "all for funsies." Mike Radifi is attempting to roll his opponent's wrist and open up a Half Nelson with a wrist ride.

Senior 112 pounder George Marsh with his parents on parents night. Sophomore Bill Beinecke is about to hear the ref whack the mat as he directs his opponent's attention to the ceiling of our gym. Senior Co-captain Eddie Adkins after hitting a nice headlock. Senior Scott Janoso is trying to "slip hips" to gain control. Freshman Eric Pesta is working a front headlock. Senior Mike Orr is working to hit a leg tuck.

Liberty Swim Team

Girls Swim team: (Captain) Chris Ridge, (Sophomores) Jill Birnbaum, Becki Conti, Zoe Johnson, (Manager) Julie Lehto, Laura Manchester, and Nicole Rosenberger.

Boys Swim team: (Captain) Charlie Stanier, (Seniors) Yale Levy, Chris Morris, Marc Sansone, (Juniors) Josh Green, Randy Lehner, Sydney Pazol, Josh Yelin, (Sophomore) Mark Hockensmith, (Freshmen) Jeff Dull, Andy Hwang, and Mike Marsh.

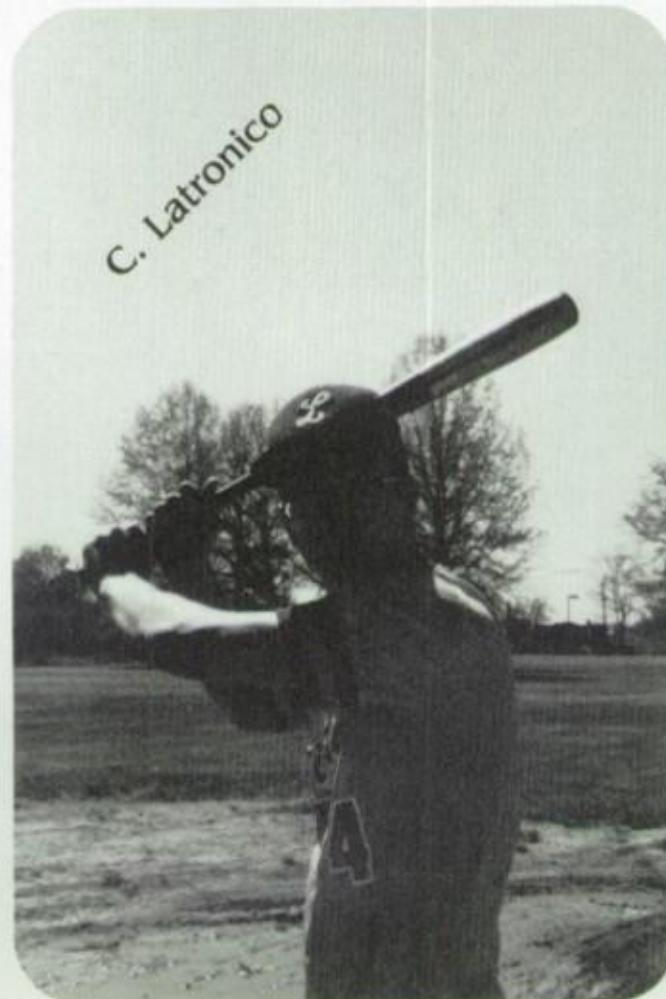

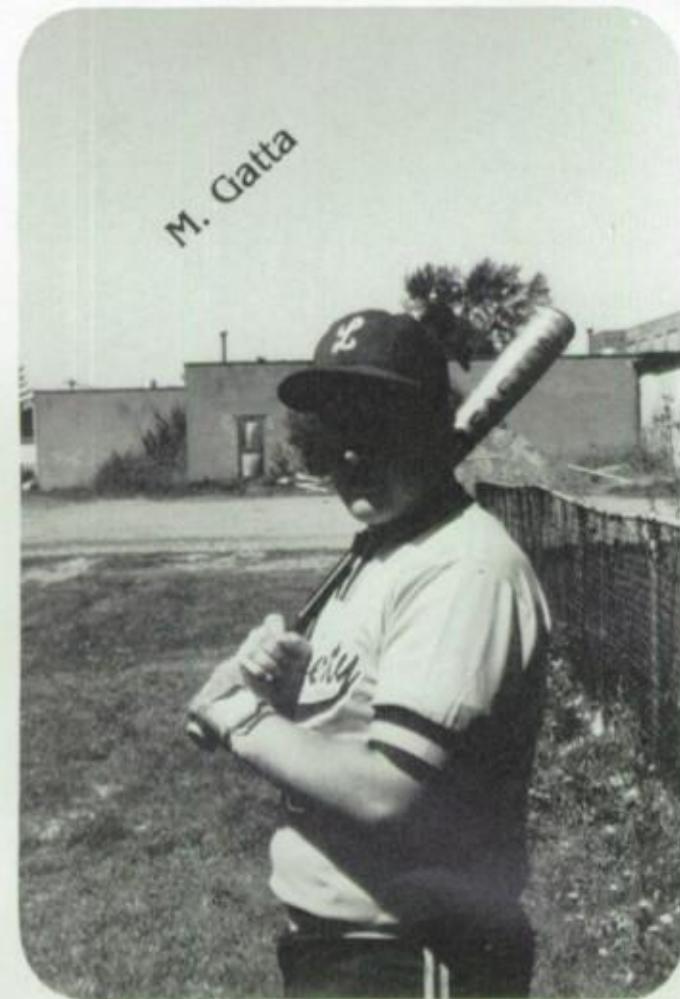

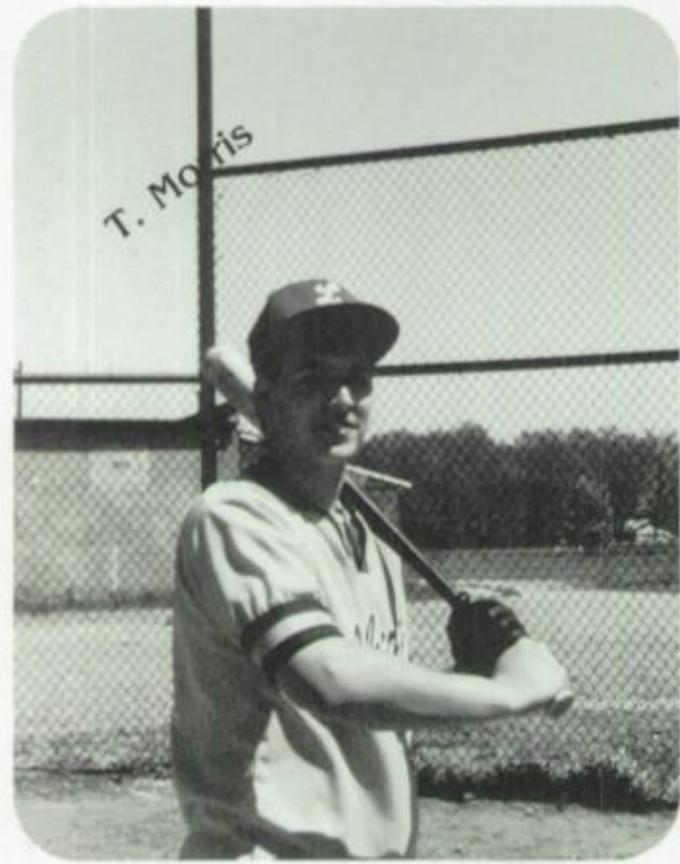

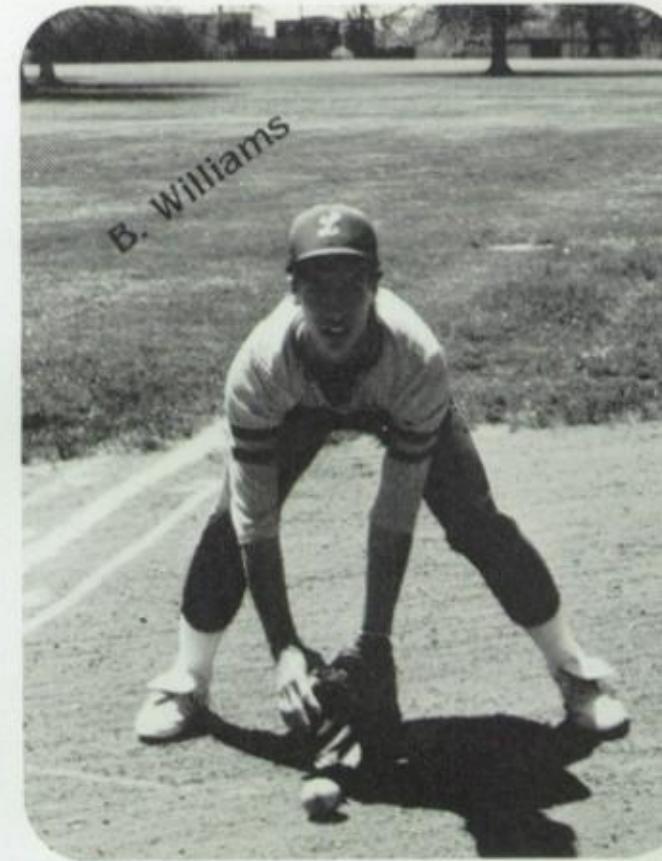

The swim team did not do quite as well as they had planned, but they still gave it their best shot. We wish the best of luck to next year's returning swimmers.

Leopards Win District Championship!

Liberty's baseball team had an excellent season this year. Their season record was 13-9, and they won both the Sectional and District Championships. Awards were given to Tim Morris (Most Valuable Player and Best Average - .409), Brian Williams (Most Improved), Steve Rohan (Best Defensive Player), and Joe DeSalvo and Robert Richardson (Top Offensive Awards). Steve Rohan and Joe DeSalvo were named to the Trumbull AA All League Team.

Boys Tennis 1987- 88

The 1988 Liberty Boys Spring Tennis Team enjoyed a winning season with a record of 10-4. Members of the singles team were Adrian Games, Robert Tamarkin and Jon Kannensohn. Members of the doubles team included Charlie Stanier and Brian Beeghly, and Mark Wolf and Rizwan Bhatti. Team replacements were Jamie Knox and Jeff Levy. Singles players Jon Kannensohn, Mark Wolf and Rizwan Bhatti, and doubles teams of Charlie Stanier and Brian Beeghly, and Adrian Games and Robert Tamarkin all participated in Tournament play. Adrian and Robert went on to become Sectional Champs, placed third in District Competition at Canton, and finished in the top eight at the State Competition in Columbus.

"Fire Cracker, Fire Cracker . . .

The cheerleaders for the 1987-1988 school year deserve a tremendous amount of credit. After double practices - 6:30 to 8:30 in the mornings and 5:00 to whenever it happened to end, almost everyday-they began the school year only to encounter many trials and tribulations. Apathy within the school at the start of the year was overwhelming and seemed almost unbearable for them. During those long, hot summer practices of jumping and cheering to an empty field, however, dedication was drilled into each heart and mind. With this embedded deep within, they turned a lot of this around and fought for what they sincerely believed in: our school and our athletes. This year's squad consisted of:

Varsity

Kelley Arbie-Captain (Senior)
Terri Hodge-Co Captain (Senior)
Carolyn McCune (Senior)
Kimberly McGinnis (Junior)
Pam Paul (Senior)
Michelle Ross (Junior)
Tina DeProfio-Mascot (Senior)

J.V.

Lynn Nist-Captain (Sophomore)
Tina Pesce-Co Captain (Sophomore)
Marsha Leeson (Junior)
Audrey Chizmar (Sophomore)
Kelly Matola (Sophomore)

Now here's three faces that were inseparable this season, on the field as well as off.

These six smiling faces were the 1987-1988 Freshman Squad. Being the youngest and newest to LHS, they survived the practices and the constant pushing of the upperclassmen to be all they could be. The squad includes: (1) Maryann Casey, Heather Hoffman (Captain), Sharon Leeson (2) Amy Galida (Co Captain), Alissa Kramer (3) Pam Chumita

Audrey takes time out from cheering to show us how she really feels about Lynn spilling hot chocolate on her.

This was no doubt THE best nerve racking game of the season. With 2 seconds left, Steve Rohan scored the winning basket for a 58-56 victory over Labrae.

... "What's the charge officer?" . . . Officer Dave Gitson says the problem here is indecent exposure.

Boom, Boom, Boom . . . "

Liberty Kids Invade JVS

LeAnn Sawyer is the MVP of JVS. Mark Kesterke works on an engine. Frank Lauer hits the books. Beth Wollagher, Melissa Holcomb and Tammy Jackamo pursue careers in health care. Scott Grey shows off his mechanical skills. James Franklin fixes a fender. Larry Cover sits in his electronics class.

Homecoming, 1987

Once again, Homecoming arrived at L.H.S. The senior class proudly presented Shari Kramer as Homecoming Queen of 1987. Shelly Zocco, former Homecoming Queen (1986), was on hand to end her reign and crown the new queen. Other members of the court included Kelly Arbie, Dia El-Khoury, Danielle Tahos, Michele Mamrick, Michelle Mallen, and Cammie Sperling.

Class floats were included during the Homecoming activities. Seniors won first place. Juniors on the other hand kept up the "no float" tradition while sophomores and freshmen made an honest attempt to steal first place.

National Honor Society

Select students of Liberty High School received the honor of being inducted into the National Honor Society. Former members of N.H.S. welcomed the new Seniors and Juniors who had met the requirements of Scholarship, Character, Leadership, and Service.

Members since 1986: Jim Watt-President, Mark Julius-Vice-President, Sarah Butcher-Treasurer, Cammie Sperling-Secretary. Andrea Alberico, Missy Beers, Rob Brauer, Suzanne Clifford, Lori Depto, Susan Fox, Sharon Kirk, Michelle Mallen, Valli Paruchuri, Steve Rohan, Stephanie Roth, Leeann Sawyer, Rob Tamarkin, Todd Tuttle, Brian Williams.

Members since 1987 (Seniors): Mona Bahhour, Ed Baldwin, Tina DeProfio, Bonnie Dycman, Terri Hodge, Kathy Knez, Yale Levy, Michele Little, Michelle Mamrick, Heather Mollic, Tim Morris, Renee Pallante, Dave Shory, Ralph Snyder, Kathy Thuman. (Juniors): Crissy Esposito, Kim Fredricks, Adam Hollander, Jon Kannensohn, Randy Lehner, Michelle Llyod, Sidney Pazol, Lynne Pilolli, Bharati Potluri, Heidi Saare, Jenny Slimmer, Jill Slimmer.

For the second year at L.H.S., the students were able to participate in another week of May Daze activities. After school events included volleyball, softball, trivial pursuit, and flag football, and a Slave Day assembly was held during school in the morning. On the last day, with a little adjustment of the schedules, students were able to take time out of school to root for their classmates in the following activities: fill the bottle, water balloon toss, three legged race, banana eating contest and the tug of war.

This year Slave Day was held as an activity during May Daze. Underclassmen had the opportunity to bid on any Senior they wanted and after three days, the highest bid won. The masters dressed their slaves in any costume they chose and displayed their slaves to their classmates at an assembly. Thanks to all the Seniors and underclassmen who participated. Slave Day was another success this year in helping raise money for the Senior class.

"ALMOST PARADISE . . . PROM '88"

MAY 13, 1988 - "All these dreams I've saved for a rainy day are finally coming true, I'll share them all with you because now we hold the future in our hands, Almost Paradise". ALMOST PARADISE was the theme for this year's prom held at the Metroplex and paradise it was thanks to Mrs. Joy DeSalvo and the Junior Executive Committee. After Hours played it out loud and clear as the seniors realized that their final year was drawing to a close and as far as graduation - "it's getting closer, closer every day, Almost Paradise".

Commencement

This year three students spoke to the class of 1988. Senior President Matt Myhal gave a concise and humorous speech to his fellow students. The class salutatorian, Valli Paruchuri followed Matt with a serious message and a sincere thanks to her classmates. Finally, the class valedictorian, Mark Julius finished the students speeches with a wonderful oration.

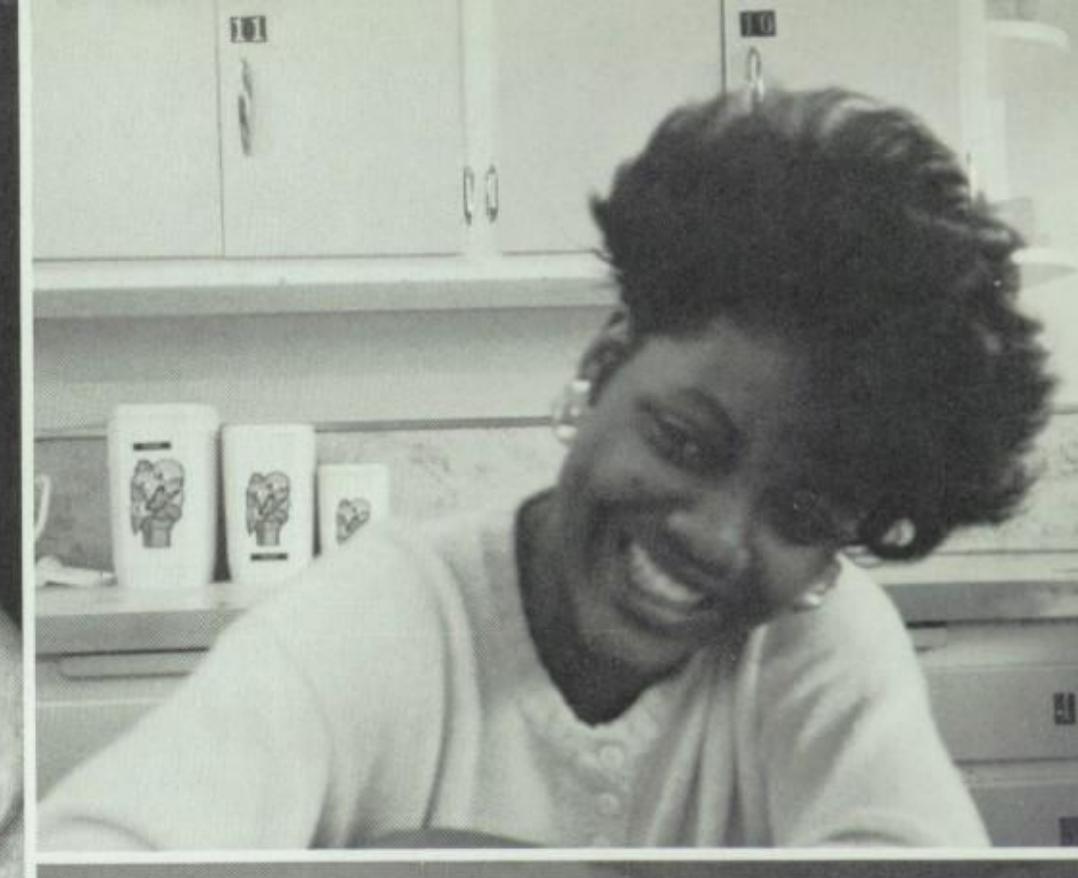

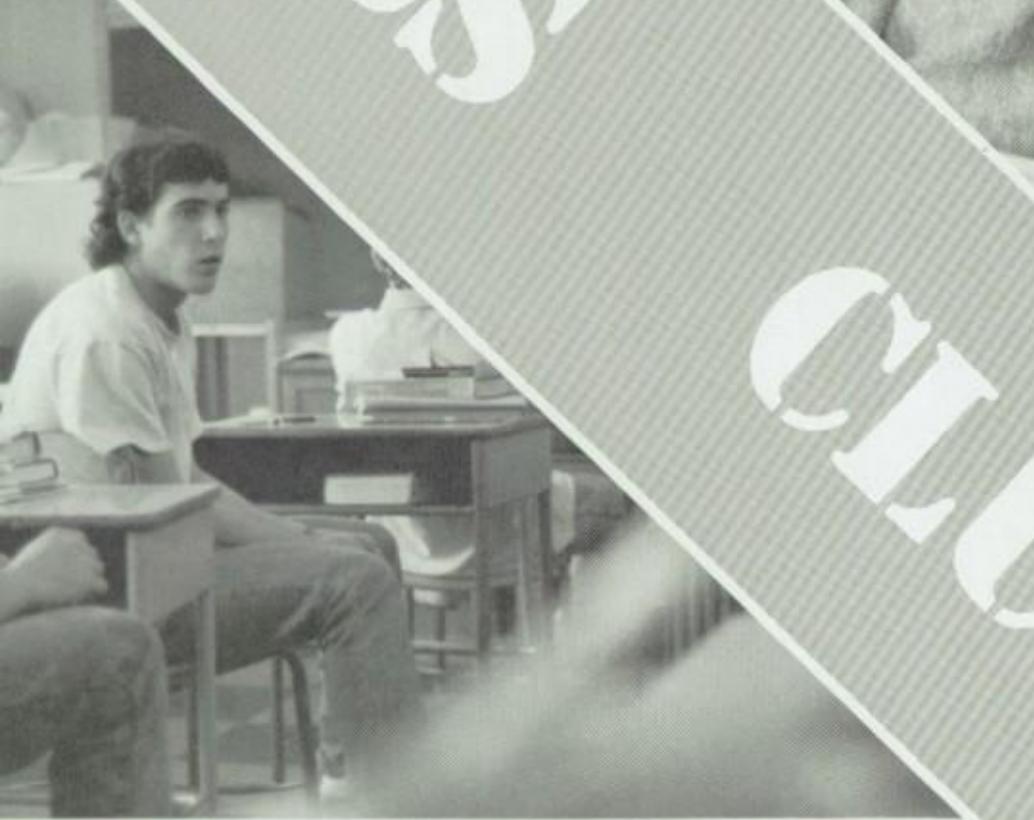

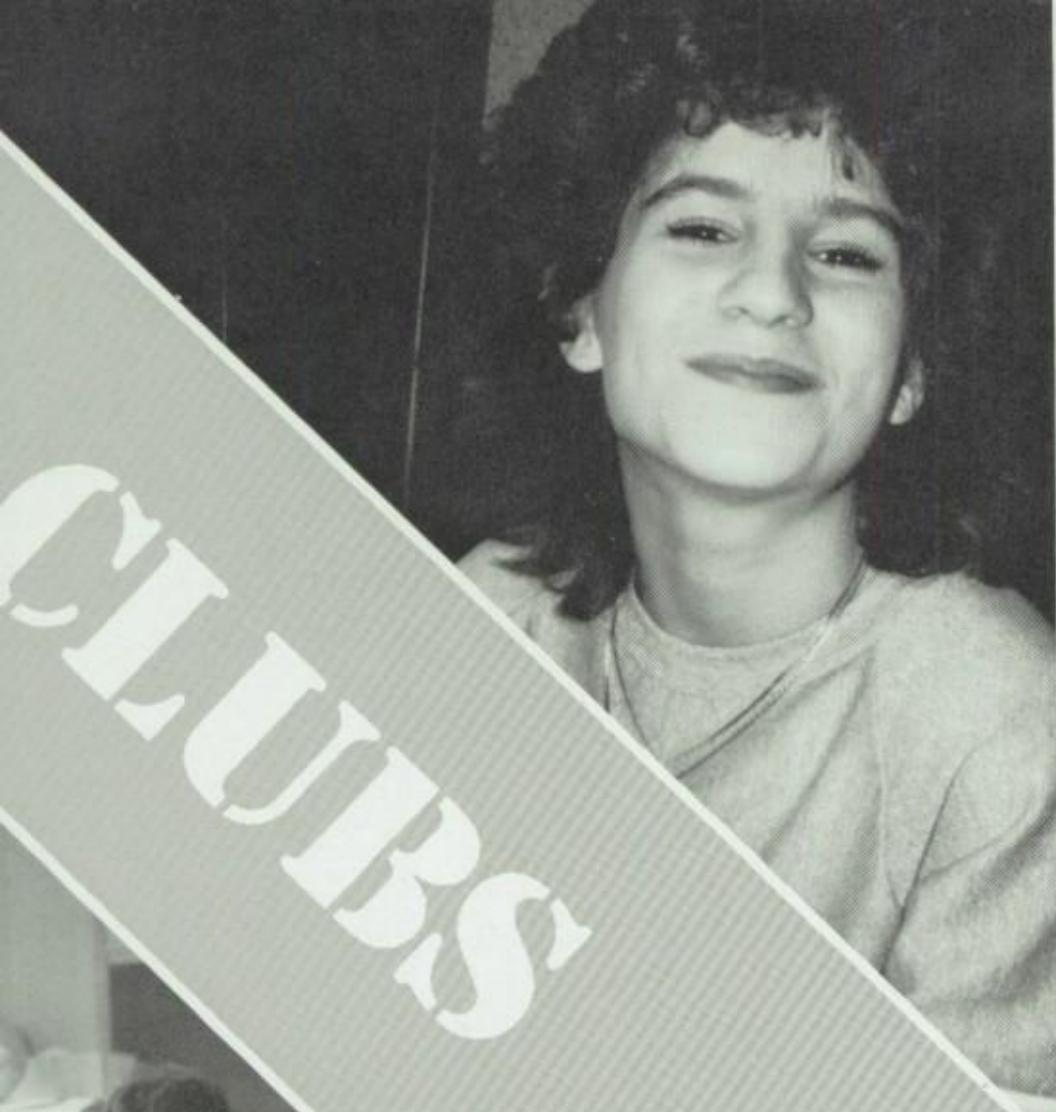

After the long awaited diplomas were handed out, the seniors rushed out to congratulate friends and receive congratulations from family members. They were hugging and crying and very proud of themselves. They would never forget that moment.

The underclassmen of 1988 would like to wish the best of luck and future success to the class of 1988!

HONORS PROGRAM

This year the Honors Program went on a couple of field trips. In the fall, they went to the Carnegie Museum in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and in the spring, they went to see Shakespeare's MacBeth performed by Christopher Plumber and Glenda Jackson at the Benedum Center, also in Pittsburgh. Hopefully the Honors Program will be able to continue these field trips next year.

SENIORS

The Senior members of the Honors Program are Todd Tuttle, Valli Paruchuri, Barbara Schueller, Suzanne Clifford, Melissa Beers, Robert Brauer, Marc Julius, Andrea Alberico, Yale Levy, Stephanie Roth, Sarah Butcher, Jay Kirkorsky, Cammie Sperling, Shari Kramer, and Sharon Kirk. # YEARBOOK STAFF

The Liberty High School 1988 Yearbook staff, after many "mandatory meetings", has completed the 1988 Oracle. Though the number of members decreased through the year, the staff was still dedicated enough to stick it out. After endless Saturday morning meetings and days after school, the Yearbook was finally finished.

Also, a special "Thank You" to Advisor Phil Latessa and Editor Bharati Potluri for all their help and patience. Thanks for putting up with everything!

First Row: T. Hewitt, S. Kirk, M. Leeson, K. McGinnis, S. Bova, Second Row: B. Potluri, B. Cole, V. Paruchuri, M. Smith, S. Hadi, D. Pullin; Third Row: M. Goldberg, P. Latessa, D. El-Khouri, R. Menold.

Bosom Buddies

Hey, Dori, Amy, Leah, and Lara, Haven't you heard, "Two's company, three's a crowd." Why four? Mrs. Stringer and her Home Economics Class. Tim Schory and accomplice are caught hiding something behind their backs. Could it be another ugly tie? Three students from L.H.S. hard at work! Hey, you two! Aren't you late for class?

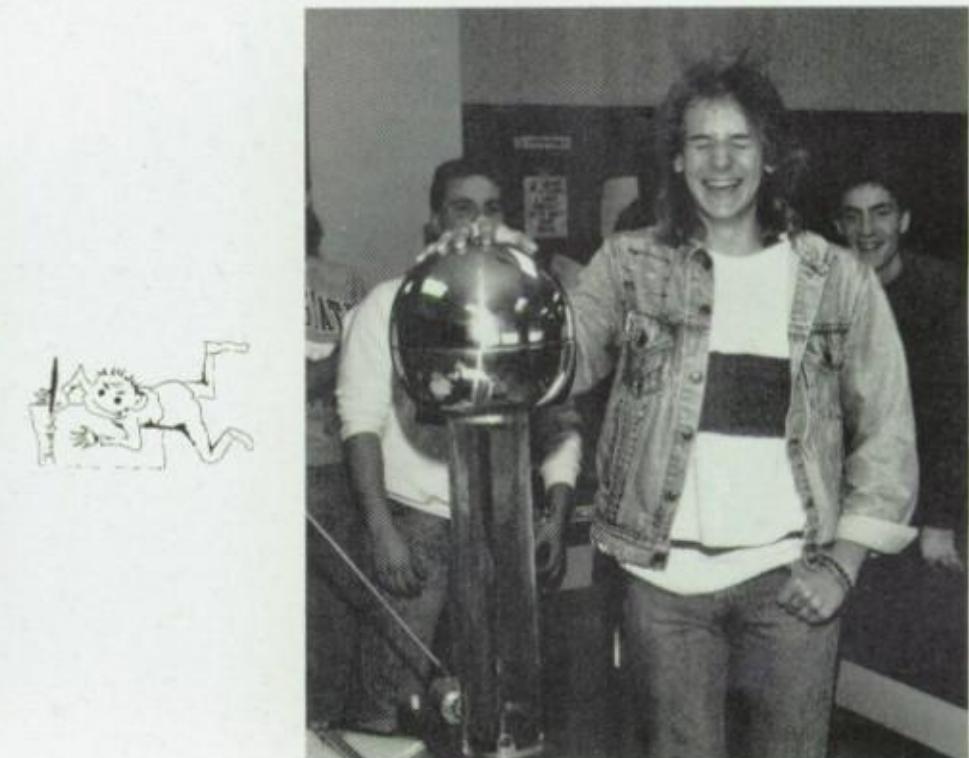

L.H.S.'s version of "Beauty and the Beast"; Chris Temelkoff and Chris Peduzzi.

Mrs. Harrison's English class-the perfect example of "when the cat's away, the mice will play!"

Chrissy seems to be telling us "Now Dora should look like this!!"

Mr. Ciferno finds a new way to get Josh to do his work!

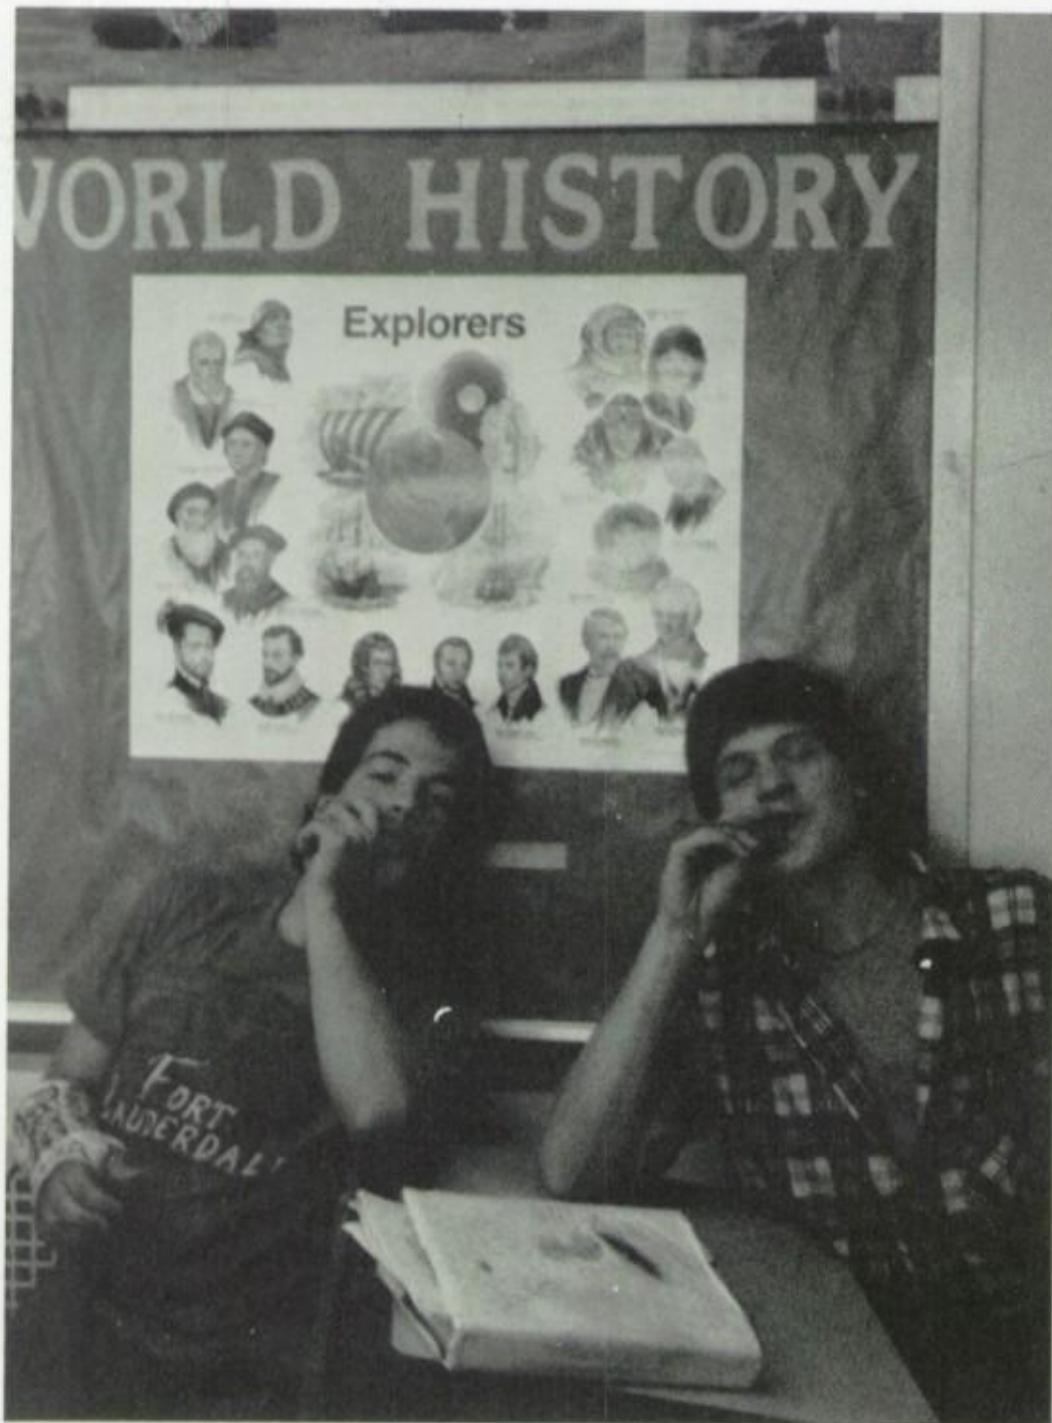

Grace gives us her innocent look as we catch her copying Jill's assignment from Mr. Brown.

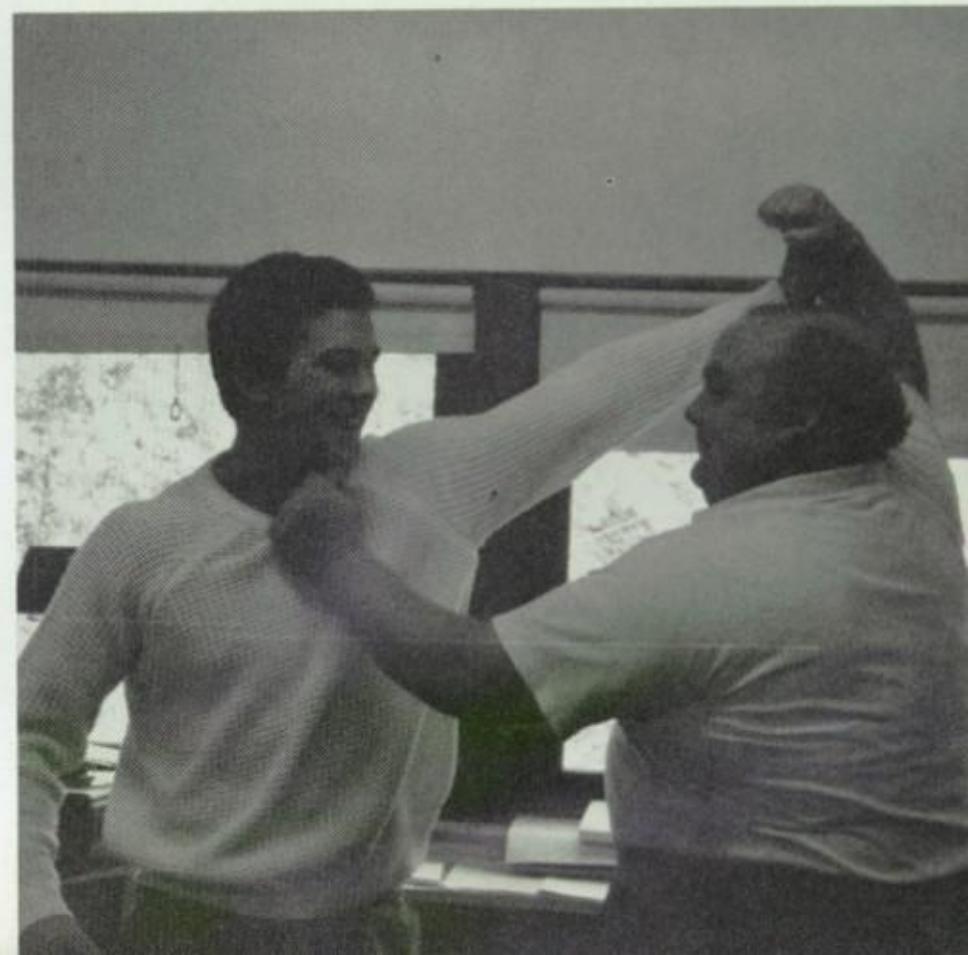

Chip, struggling to hold Marsha, wishes he spent more time lifting weights!

Just Having Fun

Geno Rice tries to tell Darren Anzevino that smoking pencils may cause splinters. Todd Perline and his three bodyguards, Jeff Dull, Danny Gagliano and Mark Hockensmith, dare you to make a move! Eric Siefert and Floyd Hopkinson-the senior fun has only just begun. Chad Wilson challenges anyone to paint a prettier picture. Dan Morar at a football game- he seems to have faith we will win.

Head Of The Class?!?

Kelly Burton and Barb Carr in history class-pay attention in class guys! Blake Rogers smiles for the camera. Lutas Odeh and Michelle Lipton, connected at the head and shoulders. Jeff VanDam-what a profile! Debbie Morrison is trying to read a note while Sherry Ifft is being nosy as usual— (just joking Sherry). Chris Adams uses his imagination in trying to think of what to do with his 2x4. Surprise us Chris! Rhonda Julian, Mary Giannini and Joy Farris model their "K-Mart Blue Light Special" glasses for us. Tom Szalay and Mr. Heinser try a new dance.

The Real Men Of L.H.S.? . . . And .

1. Andrea- maybe you and "Mattie" should get together and have a talk about who wears the skirt at L.H.S.! 2. Finally, after forty minutes of bewilderment, D.J. just realizes he's in the wrong class! 3. "Whoa, wait just one minute!" as Tom takes a step backward, "it's enough that you got me here, now you want me to go inside too?" 4. Once again Rick gives us his look of triumph after one of Mr. Heinzer's tests . . . . "What's this?!" Brian says as he finds a cheat sheet! 5. This guy takes off his mask and exposes the true Liberty Man!

.... The Real Ladies Of L.H.S!

1

2

3

5

1. O.K. gals- on three I'll snap the picture, Kim and Marsha, you drop Michelle! 2. "Mattie" Myhal, the perfect example of a good-looking cheerleader, demonstrates the wrong way to shave your legs! 3. Michelle Collins, are you working hard or hardly working? 4. Heather tries to make a break for it but is caught by our photographer. (will these Freshmen ever learn?) 5. We'd smile too if we could skip school and get away with it!

EDITOR'S NOTE

Twelve years of school are over and so is another phase of life. The future looms ahead, waiting to be filled with new experiences and more memories. The past is still there but only to look back fondly on and remember the good times, the bad times, and everything in between. Never be afraid to try something new and always regard the world with an open mind. These are just a few things to remember when starting the next phase of life.

On behalf of the Oracle Staff, I would like to wish the class of 1988 the best of luck!!!

I would also like to give a special thanks to all the members of the staff who "stuck it out until the bitter end!!!!"
